

Ensign Ranch Campout, Sept. 3-6, 2010

“Remember, remember that it is upon the rock of our Redeemer, who is Christ, the Son of God, that ye must build your foundation.” Helaman 5:12

Join the fun and come for a fabulous LDS single adult family weekend campout!

Fireside speaker:

Elder Paul D. M. Christensen
Area Seventy

A three-day weekend jam-packed with fun activities, sights, sounds, and adventures along with uplifting Sunday Services in a beautiful mountain and riverside setting!

New!

Register and pay online!

<http://www.seattlemultistakesingles.org/Campout2010/>

Register prior to August 7 and take advantage of early bird pricing!

Friday, September 3, 2010

A delicious dinner kicks off the fun-filled weekend at Ensign Ranch! Activities are available for the everyone, including a family dance with some great tunes.

Saturday, September 4, 2010

Get ready for a super day of cool activities! Activities include: games, hiking, biking, canoeing, slippery slide, hay rides, horseback riding, rock climbing wall, and volleyball. After a day of adventure, relax at the evening dance and events.

Sunday, September 5, 2010

Bask in the Spirit by attending the uplifting Sunday services, lessons, and workshops. After the evening meal, wrap up the day with a spiritual feast at the adult and youth firesides.

Monday, September 6, 2010

Bring your leftovers to breakfast for a fun potluck to start off the day. Celebrate Labor Day as camp sites are taken down and the ranch cleaned up.

All attendees are required to maintain LDS standards of modesty and conduct during the conference. Additional information about the campout will be posted on the website: <http://seattlemultistakesingles.org>